 Hazel Douglas Keymaster (194,176,105,152)	The latest publication we know of is an article in Community Practitioner (December 2015, pg 10-11) by Surinder Bains called 'A carer's journey'. It is unusual because it illustrates how she has used the Solihull Approach model both in her professional practice as a health visitor and in caring for her daughter who is on the autistic spectrum. We don't get to hear of all the articles published that mention the Solihull Approach so if you know of one that we haven't listed or if you have written one yourself do let us know!
